

A DECLARATION OF THE TRUE WEST

Stand strong against the encroaching barbarism, all who honour these things:

FREEDOM - Individual freedom of thought and action except to harm others unjustly.

DEMOCRACY - A belief in collaboration with other free individuals to create, declare and operate companies, districts, states, republics and nations.

JUSTICE - One law for all, democratically framed and improved to always protect the rights of every person.

OWNERSHIP - The right to profit from the creation and trading of goods with other free individuals.

DYNAMISM - Enthusiasm to change things, and oneself, for the better.

TRUTH - Recognition of a non-material reality which may be explored and elucidated by the mind. The sum of This reality we call the Ground of Being, God, or the One.

NATURE - A belief in discoverable Laws of Nature. A respect for Nature as an ordered whole within the One.

HISTORY - A belief in the progression of all things from a beginning to an end. We can learn from the past and shape the future.

LEARNING - It is better to know; ignorance is not bliss.

REPENTANCE - An acceptance that human fallibility requires us to often turn back, change our mind, reform.

LOVE - A desire that all our transactions be guided by appreciation and respect for all things and persons.

BEAUTY - An acceptance that pragmatic goals must be balanced with the pursuit of romantic beauty.

DEFENCE - Of our rights, property and lands. The courage to die for these values, these friends who honour them.

www.thetruewest.org
Peter Harris, Dreamspace,
Gisborne, NZ 30/03/18